KidSport provides grant funding for children 18 and under to participate in a sport.
KidSport works to fulfill its mission of eliminating financial barriers to sport participation, 'So ALL Kids Can Play!'
For more information, please visit kidsportcanada.ca/alberta/edmonton

How does KidSport help?

- KidSport provides funding through grants to children from families facing financial barriers so they can participate in registered sport programs by subsidizing the sport registration fee.

Who is eligible to receive KidSport grant funding?

- KidSport considers the social and economic barriers facing the family when determining eligibility including families who face financial hardship, on AISH, unemployed, or receiving income support through provincial government.
- The family must live within the City of Edmonton, have kid(s) registered in a sport program, and the kid(s) must be 18 years and younger.

What does KidSport grant funding cover?

- Qualified applicants can receive up to $250 max per kid, per year. Exception: higher amounts are available for Season & Competition based ice hockey programs including elite, recreation, pond, shinny, school programs and para hockey.
- Sport registration fees for all levels of sport including introduction/recreation to elite, team & individual sport, school sport, sport camps & parasport programs
- A sport program must be at least 4 weeks in length, unless it's a camp then 4 days minimum (consecutive or not)
- A sport program must be led by a qualified instructor, have a start and end date, consist of 80% sport and be one of the many sports KidSport Edmonton supports (to see the full list of sports, please visit the website)
- If the child needs equipment, once approved for KidSport, a referral to a partner agency is provided.
- Grant funding is strictly used for sport registration fees only; travel to competitions is not eligible for funding.

When is the deadline to apply?

- Submit your application as soon as your child is registered or is currently active in the program.
- Sport programs that have ended are not eligible for funding.

How to Apply:

- Find a sport program for your kid(s) and register her/him/them
- Once registered, apply online or use the paper application form
- Complete all sections of the application including supporting pieces (financial documents & registration receipt)
- Notify the sport organization that you are requesting funds from KidSport
- Once approved, KidSport will send your grant funding to the sport club and then the sport club will reimburse you
- IF KidSport Edmonton is not your local chapter, visit kidsportcanada.ca/alberta/find-a-chapter/ or call 1-888-914-5437

Please note:

- Applications are reviewed by KidSport within 30 days, KidSport will send the adult sponsor & sport club an email confirming application result. INCOMPLETE applications will delay the process.
