KidSport provides grant funding for children 18 and under to participate in a sport.

KidSport works to fulfill its mission of eliminating financial barriers to sport participation, 'So ALL Kids Can Play!'

For more information, please visit KidSport Edmonton's website: kidsportcanada.ca/alberta/edmonton

How does KidSport help?

- KidSport creates equal access to sport programs by subsidizing sport registration fees for local children from eligible families.
- Eligible families must apply for grant funding through the application below and submit supporting documentation within the KidSport Grant Funding Parameters listed below.
- Eligible families can receive $250 max per child in grant funding between Jan 1, 2024, and Dec 31, 2024. Please note, higher amounts may be available for Hockey Edmonton sanctioned ice hockey programs including Elite, House, Recreation, Para hockey and Learn to Play Hockey. For more grant funding details, please visit the website.
