KidSport Saskatchewan

1870 Lorne Street Regina, SK S4P 2L7

KidSport Saskatchewan serves communities throughout the province where Local KidSport Chapters do not exist.

Proudly supported by:

KidSport helps children of families facing financial obstacles to participate in sport, so that no kid is left on the sidelines.

Who is eligible to receive a KidSport grant?

- Families that are low-income and facing financial barriers.
- Grants are for children and youth 5 to 18 years of age.
- · Amateur sport programs.

What does KidSport cover?

- Sport registration fee
- Children could be eligible for up to, but not guaranteed financial support of $750.00 per child per calendar year (Jan-Dec).

KidSport Guidelines

- Applications must be filled out completely and appropriate documentation submitted.
- Applications must be submitted before the start date of the sport activity.
- KidSport does not fund team fees, camps, travel, tournaments, championships, high performance, sports field trips, specialized training, fitness memberships, swim passes, dance, etc.
- For a list of eligible sports, please visit: www.kidsportcanada.ca/saskatchewan
- Generally accepted sport activities are those recognized and/or sanctioned by the member organizations of Sask Sport.

How to apply to KidSport:

- 1. Register your child into a sport program.
- 2. Apply for KidSport well in advance of the sport program.
- 3. Visit website to apply www.kidsportcanada.ca/saskatchewan and choose the chapter in your community. If your community does not have a chapter choose the Provincial Fund for your application.
- 4. Complete the KidSport application form online or with a paper application.
- 5. Double check that ALL information has been filled out and that all appropriate documentation has been submitted. Do not submit until application is complete.
- 6. Submit completed application to your Local KidSport Chapter either online, via email to kidsport@sasksport.ca or through mail.
- 7. Please allow up to six weeks for notification of application status.
- 8. Applicant will be emailed of application status.
- 9. If the application has been approved, KidSport will issue funds directly to the sport organization on behalf of the child.
