KidSport provides grants for children ages 18 and under to participate in a sport season of their choice.

KidSport works to fulfill its mission of eliminating the financial barriers to sport participation, So ALL Kids Can Play!

For more information, please visit www.KidSportcanada.ca/alberta

How does KidSport help?

- KidSport provides grants to children from families facing financial barriers, so they can participate in registered sport programs.
- KidSport supports programs that provide the child with a sustained sport experience led by qualified instructors.

Who is eligible to receive a KidSport grant?

- Families who are low income, on AISH, unemployed, or receiving income support through provincial government are all considered eligible.
- KidSport considers the social and economic barriers facing the family when determining eligibility.
- Grants for children and youth 18 years and under.

What does a KidSport grant cover?

- KidSport provides financial support, the KidSport Alberta Provincial Fund can provide up to $250 per eligible child, per calendar year towards sport registration fees. Calendar year runs from January 1 – December 31.
- Thanks to partnerships with the Flames EvenStrength Program and the Edmonton Oilers Community Foundation KidSport may provide additional funding for hockey – please see the section on page two regarding hockey applications.
- If the child needs equipment, we will make a referral to a partner agency.
- Grants are intended to be used for sport registration fees; travel to competitions is not eligible for funding.

When is the deadline to apply?

- It's best to submit your application to KidSport as soon as you register your child in the sport program.
- Programs that are complete are not eligible for funding.

How to Apply:

1. Find a sport program your child would like to join and register him/her.
